

COMPANY PROFILE

RECTIFYNG THE FUTURE

WHO WE ARE

SCOMES designs and manufactures high quality electronic and electromechanical products, in particular bridge rectifiers (for welder machines, battery chargers and for all the energy conversion devices) and power modules for choppers and inverters.

FOR MORE THAN 60 YEARS HARD WORK AND PASSION

Established in 1954, SCOMES began its history manufacturing electrical switchboards.

Over time, the creativity and the craft skills have increased and, from the encounter with technological research the small business set up in the postwar period became a real industry present in the electromechanical market for more than 60 years and active in the creation, production and distribution of high quality electronic and electromechanical products.
